Trip Overview:

This trip has a limited amount of space. The application deadline is March 1st, but the spots will fill quickly. Your spot is not ensured until your application has been returned and you have been approved for the trip by the trip coordinator.

Some training and team building will take place during NYM High School Camp June 4th—8th. There is a discounted Camp rate available for those students who go on the AIM trip. June 22nd is a Mandatory training day at Christ Place Church in Lincoln. After training the team will then travel to Ecuador on the 23rd and spend six days in country. We will be working in the small community of Sucua, Ecuador with a local ministry to do community service projects and children's ministry. The team will return home on the 29th.
